

2012 Mid-Management Tour Series

October 9 – 12, 2012

Kevin MacDonald “The Star Within You”

Join Kevin, a former club manager and President of the Dogwood Chapter of CMAA for a session on finding the “star” within yourself.

Kevin’s focus as a speaker is to bring his coaching skills to inspire and pass along tangible concepts you can use to change your life and start to change behaviors to gain maximum results.

What makes a S.T.A.R? Those who are S.T.A.R.s:

- See what is needed
- Tenacious with standards
- Accountable for their attitude
- Relentless about reaching results.

A star, you know, that twinkling thing that we admire from a far. In human terms, we see stars as those who shine brilliantly in their field of endeavor. They are people who perform a skill or exhibit a characteristic that we can look at and appreciate being done at a high level.

In a society that often accepts mediocrity as a norm, people often feel a need to knock stars down, perhaps because it feels uncomfortable to have people that make them look bad.

Allow Kevin to challenge you to go through these experiences with the courage to take on these attributes, regardless of what other people think.
