

Director of Membership, Marketing and Communications

Willoughby Golf Club, Stuart, Florida

Actively searching for a Membership, Marketing and Communications Director to continue a long tradition of warm greetings for new Members and beautiful Club communications. This is a salaried position reporting to the General Manager. Membership and participation in professional organization is encouraged and funded accordingly.

Willoughby Golf Club is located in Martin County, Florida. It is a member-owned community situated on a picturesque blend of lush nature preserves and beautifully landscaped properties. A superbly conditioned Arthur Hills' golf course that has hosted regional U.S. Open qualifiers, yet is enjoyed by golfers at all levels.

Willoughby is a Florida HOA, with a 25,000 square foot clubhouse, one 18 hole golf course, 5 har tru tennis courts, two pickleball courts and a full service fitness center. Members are active and engaged in Club activities.

The Membership, Marketing and Communications Director supervises a part time contract Communications Specialist, and serves as the liaison to our marketing firm. This person also coordinates and supervises all communications, development of collateral materials, sales to new members and facilitates the integration of member into the golf and social community.

Salary and benefits are competitive, depending on experience. Candidates interested in an exciting professional opportunity should contact Michele Reilly at mreilly@willoughbygolfclub.com. Job descriptions for the exact position of interest are available upon request.